- 2.2 The following terms shall attach to the cumulative, non-redeemable, non-participating, non-convertible preference shares of 0.031 cent each in the share capital of the Company:
 - 2.2.1 For purposes of this item 2.2:
 - 2.2.1.1 "issue price" means the actual issue price of each preference share, being the par value of the preference share plus the premium at which the preference share is allotted and issued;
 - 2.2.1.2 "deemed value" means the deemed value of each preference share for purposes of calculation of the preference dividend during each dividend period, being the sum of:
 - 2.2.1.2.1 an amount of R100.00 (one hundred Rand), notwithstanding the actual issue price of the preference share which may vary because of a difference in the premium at which the preference shares may be issued from time to time; plus
 - 2.2.1.2.2 for any portion of that dividend period during which any arrear dividends remain unpaid in respect of that preference share, the amount of such arrear dividends;

- 2.2.1.3 “arrear dividend” means any preference dividend (or any portion thereof) payable in respect of a dividend period which, for any reason whatsoever, including the fact that the full amount thereof may not have been declared pursuant to item 2.2.2.15 below, is not paid by the expiry of the 120th day after the expiry of such dividend period, and remains unpaid;
- 2.2.1.4 “dividend period” means the period from the day following a preference dividend date until and including the next preference dividend date; provided that the first dividend period in respect of each tranche of preference shares issued, shall mean the period from the preference dividend date immediately preceding the winding-up of the Company up to and the date of return to the preference shareholder of the issue price and all arrear dividends in accordance with item 2.2.2.2 below;
- 2.2.1.5 “Income Tax Act” means the Income Tax Act 58 of 1962, as amended;
- 2.2.1.6 “prime rate” means the publicly quoted basic rate of interest (per cent, per annum) compounded monthly in arrears, calculated on a 365 (three hundred and sixty five) day year (irrespective of whether or not the year is a leap year) from time to time quoted by FirstRand Bank Limited (or its successor) as being its prime overdraft rate, as certified by any manager of FirstRand Bank Limited (or its successor) whose appointment, authority and/or designation need not be proved, which certificate shall be prima facie proof of the contents thereof;
- 2.2.1.7 “preference dividend” means a cumulative, non-participating preference dividend calculated in accordance with this item 2.2;
- 2.2.1.8 “preference dividend date” means 31 December and 30 June of each year;
- 2.2.1.9 “preference dividend payment date” means the date upon which any preference dividend payable will, if declared, be payable; provided that this item 2.2.1.9 shall not detract from the rights of the preference shareholders in terms of item 2.2.2.2 below to receive all preference dividends and arrear dividends prior to any payment of dividends to holders of any other class of shares not ranking prior to or pari passu with the preference shares;
- 2.2.1.10 “preference dividend rate” means the rate referred to in item 2.2.2.4 below; and
- 2.2.1.11 “preference shares” means the cumulative, non-redeemable, non-participating, non-convertible preference shares of 0.031 cent each in the share capital of the Company.
- 2.2.2 The following are the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions, which attach to the preference shares and shall apply, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Memorandum of Incorporation:
- 2.2.2.1 The issue price for each tranche of preference shares to be issued will be determined by the directors prior to the allotment thereof.
- 2.2.2.2 Each preference share is identical to every other preference share and ranks pari passu with the other preference shares in respect of all rights including, but not limited to, with regard to dividends and repayment of capital on the winding-up of the Company, and shall rank prior to the ordinary shares and any other class of shares of the Company that do not rank prior to or pari passu with the preference shares. Each preference share shall confer upon its holder the right of a return of capital on the winding-up of the Company of an amount equal to the sum of: (i) all arrear dividends in respect of that preference share, plus (ii) the preference dividend payable in respect of the last dividend period, plus (iii) an amount equal to the aggregate of the nominal value and premiums received by the Company in respect of all preference shares issued, divided by the number of preference shares issued.

2.2.2.3 Each preference share shall confer upon the holder thereof the right to receive out of the profits of the Company which it determines to distribute, the preference dividend calculated in terms of item 2.2.2.5 below, in priority to any payment of dividends or other distribution to the holders of any other class of shares in the share capital of the Company not ranking prior to or pari passu with the preference shares.

2.2.2.4 In respect of each tranche of preference shares issued, the preference dividend rate will be equal to a percentage of the prime rate determined by the directors at the time the Company offers to issue the preference shares concerned; provided that, notwithstanding any such determination, while there are any arrear dividends that remain unpaid, the preference dividend rate in respect of all preference shares will increase to 100% of the prime rate until there are no arrear dividends that remain unpaid.

2.2.2.5 The preference dividend payable per preference share in respect of each dividend period shall be calculated by:

2.2.2.5.1 multiplying the deemed value of that preference share by the preference dividend rate (determined on a 365-day year, irrespective of whether the year is a leap year or not), which shall be applied on a daily basis in arrear, for that dividend period;

2.2.2.5.2 aggregating all of the amounts calculated by such multiplication for each day of the dividend period; and

2.2.2.5.3 multiplying the aggregate amount referred to in item 2.2.2.5.2 above by 110% (one hundred and ten percent). Because the preference dividend rate is a percentage of the prime rate, the preference dividend rate applicable during any dividend period shall vary in accordance with any variations in the prime rate during that dividend period.

2.2.2.6 The preference dividends shall:

2.2.2.6.1 if declared, accrue on the date on which they are declared;

2.2.2.6.2 if declared, be payable by no later than the preference dividend payment date.

2.2.2.7 Any arrear dividend shall accumulate until the date of payment thereof and be paid by the Company in preference to payments to any other class of shares in the share capital of the Company not ranking prior to or pari passu with the preference shares.

2.2.2.8 Save as set out in items 2.2.2.2, 2.2.2.3 and 2.2.2.7 above, the preference shares shall not be entitled to any further participation in the profits or assets of the Company nor, on a winding-up, to any surplus assets of the Company.

2.2.2.9 The holders of the preference shares shall be entitled to receive notice of, and to be present, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the shareholders of the Company, but they shall not be entitled to vote at any such meeting, by virtue of or in respect of the preference shares, unless either or both of the following circumstances prevail at the date of the meeting:

2.2.2.9.1 any preference dividend or any part thereof has become an arrear dividend; or

2.2.2.9.2 a resolution of the Company is proposed which resolution directly affects the rights attached to the preference shares or the interests of the holders thereof, including, but not limited to, a resolution for the winding-up of the Company or for the reduction of its capital.

[JSE Listings Requirements Sch 10: 10.5(e) and (h)]

2.2.2.10 In the circumstances set out in 2.2.2.9 above, a preference shareholder shall be entitled to that proportion of the total votes in the Company which the aggregate amount of the nominal value of the preference shares held by him bears to the aggregate amount of the nominal value of all shares issued by the Company; provided that if at a shareholders meeting the aggregate votes exercisable by all the preference shareholders present or represented at the meeting exceed 25% less one vote of the total votes exercisable by all shareholders present or represented at that meeting, a preference shareholder shall be entitled to the aforesaid proportion of the total votes at that meeting in respect of one-quarter only of his preference shares and, in respect of the other three-quarters, such lower proportion as will result in the total number of votes exercisable by all the preference shareholders being reduced to 25% less one vote of the aggregate votes exercisable at the meeting concerned. [JSE Listings Requirements Sch 10: 10.5(c)]

2.2.2.11 At a meeting of the holders of the preference shares, the provisions of this Memorandum of Incorporation relating to meetings of ordinary shareholders shall apply, mutatis mutandis, provided that if at any adjournment of such meeting a quorum is not so present, the provisions of this Memorandum of Incorporation relating to adjourned shareholders meetings shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

2.2.2.12 If there is an amendment or amendments to the Income Tax Act which results in the preference dividends being taxable in the hands of the preference shareholders and which results in payment of the preference dividends becoming a deductible expense for the Company, provided such amendment is uniformly applicable to all corporate tax payers and not only because of the particular circumstances of the Company or any preference shareholder, the percentage of the prime rate referred to in item 2.2.2.4 above will be increased by the Company. Such increase will be limited to the extent that the Company incurs a reduced cost in servicing the preference shares, which cost savings it would not have obtained but for such amendments to the Income Tax Act. If such amendments to the Income Tax Act do not result in the Company incurring reduced costs in servicing the preference shares, then, notwithstanding that such amendment may result in a decrease in the after-tax returns of any preference shareholder on its holding of preference shares, no amendment shall be made to the percentage of prime rate contemplated in item 2.2.2.4 above. The Company shall require its auditors to verify whether it is obliged to increase the preference dividend in accordance with this item 2.2.2.12 and, if so, the amount of the increase. The auditors in deciding on such increase shall act as experts and not as arbitrators or quasi-arbitrators and their decision shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding on the Company and all preference shareholders. The costs of such auditors shall be borne and paid by the Company.

- 2.2.2.13 The prior consent of the holders of at least three-quarter of the preference shares represented either in person or by proxy at a meeting of the preference shareholders shall be required to alter the provisions of this item 2.2 and Article 1.4(2) of this Memorandum of Incorporation.
- 2.2.2.14 Any question relating to the termination of the listing of the preference shares on any stock exchange shall be deemed to constitute a modification of rights of the preference shares to which the provisions of Articles 1.4(1), 1.4(2) and 2.1(2)(c) shall apply.
- 2.2.2.15 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this item 2.2, the Company shall not be obliged to declare any preference dividend, but any failure by the Company to pay the preference dividend (whether declared or not) by the expiry of the 120th day after the expiry of the dividend period in respect of which it is calculated in terms of item 2.2.2.5 above, will result in the application of item 2.2.1.2.2, item 2.2.1.3 and the proviso to item 2.2.2.4.
